1. I understand that this is an internet delivered course with pre-recorded lectures but that exams will be held by the use of a live proctor at a proctoring location set up through the use of SmarterProctoring—this means you will travel to a proctoring location for each exam (three semester exams and a final exam).
2. I understand how to view lecture videos in Blackboard/Panopto.
3. I have read the course syllabus and course policies.
4. I understand how to view Dr. Barkey's worked out book problem videos in Blackboard/Panopto. (Exact problems from the 4th edition have been worked out, and problems from the 3rd edition that are similar to the 4th edition are also available.)
5. I understand how to opt-out of the e-book if I want. (Note that the e-book will not be available until the first day of class.)
6. I understand that homework to be submitted will be available through Blackboard, and that due dates are listed in the Blackboard homework submission area.
7. I understand how to upload and submit homework in Blackboard as a PDF file. Note that image files (e.g. jpg) are not accepted.
8. I have read and understood my responsibilities to watch and understand the lecture videos by the dates listed on the daily assignment sheet.
9. I understand that the recommended problems listed on the daily assignment sheet will not be collected, but will be essential (but not necessarily sufficient) to understand the course material and that I should work these problems out before the associated exam and ask questions as needed. (Note: you should expect to work more than 100 practice problems to get a full understanding of the course material.)

10. I understand that Zoom may be used for student meetings.
11. I understand that regular (90 minute) exams will be given during the dates listed on the class schedule.
12. I understand that the final exam will be given during the regularly scheduled final exam week at an exact time/date yet to be determined.
13. I understand that exams will be worked independently by the student of this course and not with any use of course notes, course materials, course book, tutors, websites and any other external help—i.e. only worked by the student with closed book and closed notes, with violations subject to the University of Alabama Academic Misconduct Policy. (i.e. no Chegg, Coursehero, etc.)
14. I understand that all non-textbook class material (exams/handouts/videos) is copyright of M. E. Barkey and may not be stored, distributed, or transmitted by anyone except as needed for this semester to submit course materials for grading purposes.

My signature indicates that I have read and understand the items listed above and agree to YES for each item. If I am unaware of any item, I will review the course overview video:

the BlackBoard discussion board, and/or ask questions.
